Overview

Manipulation Continues...

We begin our 7-inch series with the pairing of two artists who have been making noise lately due to their individual blends of well-crafted sample-based beats.

Los Angeles based producer Dday One sets the tone with "Sense of Balance" which combines tranquil flutes and heavy drums creating the melodic union of solitude and chaos. The next contribution comes from Dextah the Chicago native now residing in Los Angeles via the Bay Area. In the form of "Untitled #541" Dextah channels the energy of a classic Bomb Squad track with punk aesthetics.

This project is strictly limited to 500 copies that are hand numbered. The design + photography is inspired by the song titles, which are exclusive to this release.
